

Make safety our shared destination

Safety Experience

Always follow the procedures !

Aircraft protection during painting and washing

! Potential effects

Forgetting probes protections on an aircraft after painting may cause incorrect indications during subsequent flight.

✓ Recommendations

Strictly adhere to the Technical Data Documentation

Ensure all instructions are reflected in the job cards

Remove all protections after work is completed

Pay special attention to the Warnings and Cautions on how to protect critical components during painting operations

Ensure protections are easily visible from the ground and easy to remove

Find out more on d10x.airbus.com

AIRBUS